

What does Pell LEU > 400% mean?

Is there a limit to how long I can receive Federal Pell Grant funds?

TYPES OF AID

Yes. There is a maximum amount of Federal Pell Grant funds you can receive over your lifetime. You can receive the Pell Grant for no more than 12 terms or the equivalent (roughly six years). This is called the Federal Pell Grant Lifetime Eligibility Used (LEU).

You'll receive a notice if you're getting close to your limit. If you have any questions, contact your school's financial aid office.

Changes that may Impact Eligibility:

Federal Pell Grant Duration of Eligibility - beginning the award year 2012-2013, the duration of a student's eligibility to receive a Federal Pell Grant is reduced from 18 semesters or its equivalent to 12 semesters or its equivalent. The calculation of the duration of a student's eligibility will include all years of the student's receipt of Federal Pell Grant funding.

Pell Grant Lifetime Limit - beginning Fall 2012, students are now limited to receiving 12 semesters of Pell Grant eligibility during their lifetime. This change affects all students regardless of when or where they received their first Pell Grant. Students may view their percentage of Pell Grant used by logging into <https://studentaid.gov/>. Your "Lifetime Eligibility Used" percentage will be displayed in the "Grants" section.

The Pell Lifetime Limit is updated each time a student accepts a Pell Grant disbursement. Once a student has utilized 600% of Pell Grant, we recommend applying for other resources to complete your degree. Or setting up a Payment Plan.
